Brought Into Competition With the World's Best Carries

off the Honors.

At the great Centennial Exhibition of 1876 the leading products of all the branches of the world's industries were assembled at Philadelphia. To carry off a prize in the face of that tremendous competition was a task of no ordinary difficulty. Inventions and preparations for the alleviation of pain and the cure of disease were present in the greatest variety, representing the skill and the profound study of the age, and it may be of vital importance to you personally to know that the highest and only medal given to rubber porous plaster was awarded to the manufacturers of BENSON'S CAPSULE POROUS PLASTER, by the following:

DR. W. M. ROTH, Surgeon-General Prussian Army.
J. H. THOMPSON, A. M., M. D., Washington, D. C.
C. B. WHITE, M. D., New Orleans.

ERNEST FLEISCH, M. D., Austria.
The decision was afterward confirmed by the medical jury at the last Paris Exposition. Knowing the value of such high and unbiased testimony, the medical profession, both in the United States and Europe, quickly threw aside the old, slow-acting plasters they had been using and adopted BENSON'S CAPSULE POROUS PLASTER. That physicians and surgeons of the broadest reputation did this distinctly proves the intrinsic merit of the article. It is not more than just to add that the average physician of to-day is not dominated by the prejudices which retarded the progress and modified the standard of his predecessors of not more than twenty-five years ago. He accepts hints from all quarters and endorses and adopts demonstrated healing agents wherever he finds them.

The right of BENSON'S Capsule Porous Plaster to stand at the head of all external applications whatsoever, for the mitigation or cure of disease, is no longer questioned. Let the purchaser, however, be on his guard against imitation. The genuine has the word CAPSULE cut in the middle. Seabury & Johnson, Chemists, New York.

PLAIN TRUTHS

The blood is the foundation of life, it circulates through every part of the body, and unless it is pure and rich, good health is impossible. If disease has entered the system the only sure and quick way to drive it out is to purify and enrich the blood.

These simple facts are well known, and the highest medical authorities agree that nothing but iron will restore the blood to its natural condition; and also that all the iron preparations hitherto made blacken the teeth, cause headache, and are otherwise injurious. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS will thoroughly and quickly assimilate with the blood, purifying and strengthening it, and thus drive disease from any part of the system, and it will not blacken the teeth, cause headache or constipation, and is positively not injurious.

Gentle—Upon the recommendation of a friend I tried BROWN'S IRON BITTERS as a tonic and restorative for my daughter, whom I was thoroughly convinced was wasting away with Consumption. Having lost three daughters by the terrible disease, under the care of eminent physicians, I was loth to believe that anything could arrest the progress of the disease, but, to my great surprise, before my daughter had taken one bottle of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, she began to mend and now is quite restored to former health. A fifth daughter began to show signs of Consumption, and when the physician was consulted he quickly said "Tonics were required," and when informed that the elder sister was taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, responded "That is a good tonic, take it."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Around Tustin City and Orange, Los Angeles county, the raisin grape is the staple product and the profits are very satisfactory. Land which a few years ago sold for $4 an acre has, in some cases, advanced to a valuation of $150. The Muscat of Alexandria is the grape planted, and it yields an average of three and one-half tons to the acre in green grapes, or a little over a ton in cured raisins. The usual price is seven cents a pound, and long before the raisins have been matured, competing agents of Eastern and San Francisco firms invade the valley and offer remunerative prices to the vineyardists.

In a recent article addressed to the young men, the San Jose Mercury says: "There are scores of young men in San Jose—intelligent, active, and really industrious and worthy young men—who are on the down grade, going straight to hell by the through Liquor Line. God pity the young woman who marries one of them! There is before her a life of such unutterable wretchedness as no pen can describe."

The Interior Department has already sent out 17 special agents, 12 of whom are new appointees, to investigate the fraudulent entries in public lands, and will send out others from time to time as the service may require. Some of these agents have reported a number of fraudulent entries, but it is too soon to expect a full report from all of them.

How Executors and Young Bloods Got Away With an Estate.

New York, May 8.

In the Surrogate Court to-day much excitement was created by the development of a peculiarly interesting and romantic story. The principal actors are young men of high social standing and wealth. The story is as follows: In 1869 Mr. Tilden, a relative of Samuel J. Tilden, died, leaving an estate of $25,000,000, which he distributed equally among four sons, William, Willard, Marmaduke and Beverly Tilden, aged 20, 15, 12 and 9, respectively. Josiah M. Fiske, Wm. Blodgett, David Dows, Chas. Tracy and N. C. Ely were appointed executors in 1870. The executors employed an Italian named Biaggio as tutor and manager for the boys, and they were sent to Paris, where they occupied rooms formerly occupied by the Prince of Wales and other members of the royal family of England. They then proceeded to Berlin and lived in sumptuous style, expending in 16 months the sum of $70,000. The eldest of the four, William, purchased a place in Coburg for $40,000, and with it the title of Baron. While in his palace he became very much interested in the wife of the former owner and very soon was under complete control of her husband, to whom he gave the power of attorney and permitted him to purchase furniture for the palace. In 1872 the executors discovered the condition of affairs abroad and by the payment of very large sums of money the young man was extricated from his difficulty. The four then conceived the idea of a ball in honor of Americans in Germany. They hired an immense hall at great expense and gave a ball which was widely commented on. When they returned home the executors footed up their expenses for two years and four months as $185,000. They were sent to Harvard College, but did not remain there. William was made executor of the estate and in 1877 a partner in the business formerly carried on by his father. This he was compelled to give up, on account of not being competent to manage it. Many accountings were had, for which large counsel fees were paid. In 1877 Gustavus G. J. Thebaud was appointed guardian for Beverly B. Tilden. He received $1250, and afterwards, it is alleged, was looked up in Ludlow Street Jail for 11 months for misappropriation of $15,000 belonging to another estate for which he was attorney. From the accounting now in progress before the referee it appears that the two eldest sons have been paid $175,000 more than their share. It is also charged that a mortgage of $100,000 on Jersey City property, with interest, was collected by the executors, and one of them deposited the money to his private account. The estate is in a bad condition and will now yield but $100,000 to each of the youngest sons. The executors are charged with procuring the ratification of their acts by threats. Beverly B. Tilden now seeks to have the various accountings opened, on the ground that expenditures were foolish, rash, unnecessary and contrary to their father's will. He also claims that the executors should be charged with the unnecessary expenditures.

Legislative Matters in Massachusetts—Butler in a Corner.

Boston, May 8.

The Legislative Committee appointed to investigate the facts regarding the alleged invalidity of Governor Butler's first veto, held a secret session this morning. One of the Governor's private secretaries was summoned to testify, but he refused point blank to make any statement. The committee are considering the advisability of ordering him under arrest. The House this morning suspended the rules and passed and sent at once to the Senate all charities appropriation bills before acted upon, including bills for Tewksbury, Concord prison, Monson, Sherborn, Bridgewater and Lancaster. All other charities appropriation bills were acted upon favorably. The Democrats withdrew opposition and will rely on the Governor to veto the bills.

Negotiations for Placing Pullman Sleepers on the C. P.

CHICAGO, May 8.

It is generally understood that the purpose of Geo. M. Pullman's visit to New York is of great financial importance and value to his company, as well as to the Central Pacific Railroad Company. Officials of the latter company are now in New York, where it is said negotiations will be completed with Pullman for the introduction of Pullman sleeping cars on the Central Pacific road between Ogden and San Francisco and possibly on the Southern Pacific between Deming and San Francisco.

A Supreme Court Decision on Freight and Fare.

WASHINGTON, May 7.

On the 5th of March, 1873, Morgan A. Lewis, a passenger on a train of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, tendered Neal Ruggles as conductor of that company 18 cents as fare for his transportation from Buda to Reponset, a distance of six miles. This was at the maximum of three cents per mile prescribed by the statute of Illinois, then in force. The conductor demanded 20 cents, which was the fare fixed by the railroad company. Lewis refused to pay more than 18 cents, and the conductor thereupon attempted to eject him from the car. For this action he was prosecuted before a Justice of the Peace upon a charge of assault and battery and fined $10 and costs. The case was then carried up through the State courts by successive appeals, the railroad company sustaining the conductor and raising the question of the right of the State to interfere with its business by fixing rates of fare and transportation. A decision was finally rendered in favor of the State by its highest court, and the railroad company thereupon appealed it to the Supreme Court of the United States on the ground that an act of the General Assembly of Illinois of April 15th, 1871, fixing the maximum rates of charges for the transportation of passengers on the railroads in the State was unconstitutional and void, because it impaired the obligation of contracts contained in the charters of the various companies which were merged into the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Company by consolidation. This court holds, first, that grants of immunity from legitimate Government control are never to be presumed; on the contrary, presumptions are all the other way, and unless exemption is clearly established a State may limit the amount of charges by railroad companies for fares and freights unless restrained by some contracts in their charter. Second, that in the present case there is no such restraint. The State, it is true, has given the Board of Directors of a railroad company the power to establish such rates of toll for the conveyance of persons or property as they shall from time to time, by their laws, determine; but such by-laws must not be repugnant to the constitution and by-laws of the State.

Burglary and Rape in a Quiet New England Town.

HARTFORD, May 8.

At 1 o'clock this morning the residence of Mrs. Moore, in West Hartford, was entered by two burglars, who went to ransacking the house. One of the ruffians, with drawn pistol, stood on the top stairs and kept Mrs. Moore and a crippled grand-daughter on the second floor while the other outraged another grand-daughter on the lower floor. The girl was then assaulted by the burglar who had kept guard, his companion taking his place on the stairs. The girl is in a precarious condition.

A Fast Freight Train.

St. Louis, May 8.

The fast tobacco train now en route to San Francisco arrived at Deming, New Mexico, last night, 24 hours out from Holstead, Kansas, where it was transferred by the St. Louis & S. F. Railroad to the Topeka and Santa Fe road. The distance is 939 miles, which was run at the rate of 19 miles per hour. At Deming a Southern Pacific train will take it through to San Francisco at equal speed.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8.

The Fair divorce case is the subject of general conversation this morning. Public opinion and sympathy appear to be entirely on the side of Mrs. Fair, the mother of the four children. Hopes are freely expressed that the court will grant all Mrs. Fair asks for, both as to expenses, control of the children, $3,000,000 cash and $1,500,000 in property. Many persons are heard saying that if Mrs. Fair obtains these amounts she will doubly succeed, first in securing ample provision for herself and children and being released from a faithless husband. Mrs. Fair has not had the social advantages of many other women in a corresponding social position, but in her days of poverty and wealth has been a true and constant wife and mother.

The Blue-Noses Startled By a Fenian Ghost.

HALIFAX, May 8.

Rumors are current that a startling letter has been received by Lieutenant Governor Archibald, warning him of the expected visit in Halifax of two suspicious American vessels and cautioning him to have precaution taken for the safety of life and property in the city. The Lieutenant-Governor admitted receiving a letter, but declined to state its contents or the nature of the measures taken by the military and naval authorities. From other parties in position to know the contents of the letter it is learned that two suspicious vessels, manned, it is believed, by Fenians, and carrying a quantity of torpedoes and other dangerous explosives, sailed from Boston a few days ago and, it is thought, intended to make Halifax their destination. On their arrival here, it was asserted the torpedoes with which the vessels are laden would be laid, as opportunity offered, beneath the water of the harbor, with the intention of blowing up the shipping entering or leaving. A line of torpedoes was to be stretched up the harbor as close to the city as possible, and when the time arrived all would be fired. Particular mention is made of an extraordinary watch to be kept on the 14th inst., the day on which Brady, the Phoenix Park murderer, will be executed. And it was also recommended that guards at the various barracks, powder magazines, dockyard and warships be strengthened.

IRON RANCH FENCE.

The boss ranch, farm and vineyard fence is now in the market. It is built with iron posts and barbed wire; the post being made of wrought and cast iron. The top of the post is made of one-inch gas pipe and pierced with holes through which a plain wire is inserted, which fastens the barbed wire to the post. The post is cast with three flanges and is twenty-one inches long. The flanges render the post immovable when inserted in any soil.

These posts are placed two rods apart with an iron stay between, and there can be any number of wires and any kind of wire used.

Three men can build one mile of fence per day on good ground.

Fire cannot burn or injure it; cyclones will not move it, and floods cannot wash it away.

I sell fence loaded on cars in San Francisco at $1 per rod for three-wire fence, and $1.25 for five-wire fence complete, and to agents at reduced rates which enable a good live man to make from $100 to $500 a month on an investment of a small capital in territory, and any one wishing to purchase any county, State or Territory, can get a bargain by calling on or writing me of his desire.

JOTTINGS

Foods in May make tons of hay. The up-country stages went away this morning crowded with passengers.

Go to J. D. Pollard's market and convince yourself that he keeps the choicest meats.

If you want something good go to Jake Becke's and try his Fredrickburg beer.

A full stock of watch crystals at Nasby's. Thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1, 3-45, 57, 57, 58, 59.

The Truckee river has raised 10 inches in the past 48 hours, and will probably be higher during the next few days.

A large quantity of agricultural machinery is going west all the time, as if Californians anticipated a large harvest.

Travel goes by fits and starts. Some mornings there is a crowd, as there was yesterday, and sometimes there are few, as this morning.

The richest milk furnished by anyone in the business comes from J. D. Pollard's dairy. He delivers it at your door every morning and evening.

W. B. Cutting drove in Dick Martin's butter team from Summit last evening, en route for Virginia City, leaving a few boxes of choice butter in Reno.

Several who bought chances and paid their money months ago in a watch and chain raffle are desirous of having the raffle come off or get their money back.

Another company of Jews went west last night, seeking homes in the foothills of California. They were well provided with means, and seemed to be a solid lot of people.

Professor Feray will give his last dance of the season next Saturday evening, when there will be a bon-bon party, with the best of music. It will be a grand sugaring-off.

Two months ago it was said that about the last of Nevada cattle had been shipped, and yet beef is going west at a rate that would be noticeable in any other section but Nevada, from which many outsiders think, no good can come.

Knowles & Bainbridge are climbing on top of all competitors. Their stock and prices control the trade. They deal extensively in farming implements, and farmers will find it greatly to their advantage to call on them before making purchases.

The Welch Comedy Company last night gave an amusing entertainment. Mr. Welch is a fine comedian and a rare character actor. His versatility is something remarkable. He kept the audience in a laugh for more than two hours, and even then they were not tired of witnessing his comic antics.

Professor Sattler of Munich has been examining ancient things, and has arrived at the conclusion that the present year is 1888 instead of 1883. In that case all bills run up in 1882 are already outlawed. But that won't prevent a man from buying a good suit of clothes at the White House for cash, when they are so cheap. Abrams Bros. sell their goods for money down, and that is the reason they can afford to mark them so low.

IN THE HILLS

Life in a Sierra Nevada Logging Camp—An Old Renolite Adrift in the Mountains.

CLINTON, Cal., May 6.

Editor Gazette:—Thinking a few lines from our lumber camp may be of interest to your readers, I will give you a brief description of it and its surroundings. The history of the Pacific Wood and Lumber Company is well known; so I will confine myself to a description of present operations. Any Renolite desirous of finding the logging camp (as I was one week ago) may do so by crossing the Truckee on a fine bridge near the company's mill, and climb the hill along the log chute some 200 feet at an angle of about 45°, but apparently much steeper. At that place he will find the starting point of the P. W. & L. Co.'s Railroad, which extends in a meandering course around canyons about seven miles, reaching and passing through some of the finest timber in the Sierras. At the terminus of this road is the company's camp, almost a village, consisting of boarding house, laborers' cabins, stock barns, corrals, blacksmith shops, etc. The camp is now presided over by the immortal Phil Bates.

THE GREAT BEAN-EATER

Of Long Valley and the man who has succeeded in hatching out and raising more grasshoppers than any other man now living. He seriously contemplated giving up the hopper business and trying his hand on crickets; but his neighbors persuaded him (with clubs) to leave the valley, and he now presides over our camp. Here, high up in the pine groves of the Sierras, his stentorian voice may be heard calling "Time, boys," and here let me say that as superintendent of work on the hills he is a success and has no superior. The country here must have been an expensive one to make, as it contains

MORE LAND AND ROCK

To the acre than any other country on the globe, and in creating it all the material must necessarily have been packed up hill. There are many strange things to be seen in these romantic hills; though the ground is frozen and mostly covered with snow at least a part of each day, yet during the brief sunshine which sometimes occurs the ground is found covered with flowers. The planing mill at Clinton is now running. James Ware, formerly of the Truckee Lumber Company, is now Superintendent of the entire business, and under his keen, practical eye nothing goes wrong, and his experienced touch, like some magic wand, seems to turn the huge pine logs into

THE FINEST LUMBER

With resources seemingly inexhaustible. He has not confined his operations to the manufacture of lumber, and should we find other wares in the market at some future time you need not be astonished, as he has brought to Clinton a lovely bride. I do not flatter when I say she is truly an accomplished and amiable lady and her presence adds much attraction to the camp. Last night, by invitation, the employees of the company met at the station and were greeted by the happy pair and treated to sparkling wine, Boca beer and cake. With refreshments and toasts a pleasant hour was spent, when the party "went west" to one of the suburbs of Clinton, namely, Boca. Here we were met by

AN OLD RENOLITE

P. B. Comstock. After being escorted to the hotel, the hall was thrown open, and to the best of music we tripped "the light fantastic" until the coming of the Sabbath. Then, adjourning to the parlor, an hour was spent very pleasantly with music and song, the bride, among others, favoring us with some fine selections. Thus ended an evening long to be remembered by many who participated in its pleasures. And now a word which will please many a Renolite: Our genial landlord and his estimable wife know how to keep hotel. They have refitted and in a measure refurnished the hotel and it is equal to the best in Reno in the attention paid to guests and the well-furnished table, etc., and the present outlook bodes success and a brighter future. R. T. H.

ALUMINUM

A Valuable Metal that has Been Running to Waste.

For a long time it has been known that the Antelope mine of Long Valley contained an ore, the metal of which was unknown. Capt. Griffin, the superintendent, when he went east, carried samples of this rock for the purpose of securing its character. It is now found to contain about 15 per cent. of aluminum. If a process can be had to economically reduce this metal, the discovery will be a valuable one, as the quantity of ore in the mine is said to be large. It is a white metal with a slight bluish tinge, very strong and light and is not easily corroded. It is much used in the manufacture of optical instruments, and in such things as require a nice combination of lightness and strength. The great difficulty to be met with by the Antelope mine is that of saving it. It is worth about $32 per pound, or twice as much as silver.

Cheapest and Best.

The prisoners say that Lindley is furnishing the best groceries they ever had. The books show that they are also the cheapest.

MINES IN LANDER

A Correspondent Who Has Faith in the Resources of that Section.

AUSTIN, May 6.

Editor Gazette:—Let me say a word for this section. Every interest seems about to contribute its share towards an increase of prosperity. The recent storms assure us of abundant harvests, and the farmers are exerting themselves to seed as broad an acreage as their means will permit. They have also a flour mill under construction. No means will be spared to have it manufacture an article that will compete with the best from California.

While the mines show an increase, both in quantity and quality, over several years past, while the increase in value of our ores as depth is obtainable overcomes in a great measure the expense incident to deep mining, every step in their developments not only proves their permanency, but their freedom from faults and displacements becomes more apparent.

The Manhattan mill is temporarily closed for the necessary repairs after a run of six months. It still maintains its reputation for the success with which it reduces rich ores. The aggregate return for the run was 94 per cent. of the assay value. What other mill in the State can show like returns? Being the first in America to demonstrate on an extensive scale the chlorination of silver ores, we still propose to maintain a well-earned reputation.

New enterprises are about to be undertaken adjacent to Austin by both eastern and western companies. Mr. Breen sold a mine to a Chicago company yesterday for $20,000 cash, and a half mile north of Austin. The outlook to the most casual observer is that this portion of Nevada has better days in store for him. XX.

KANSAS CATTLE BUSINESS

Transactions at the Great Market of the Plains.

Some idea may be had of the amount of money that changes hands at Dodge City when the figures of its business are stated. Last season over 11,000 head of horses were driven from Texas and sold at Dodge between March and June. During the season 280,000 head of stock cattle were driven in and sold to go on the ranges in various sections. A great many of the cattle went to Colorado and a great many Nebraska, Wyoming and other Territories, while Kansas held the bulk of them. The foregoing refers only to stock cattle—not beef cattle. The books of the A., T. and S. F. road show that from the first of October to the close of the season there were shipped 4,300 cars of beef cattle to the eastern markets. The drive for this year, according to the best attainable data, will exceed 275,000 head of cattle, and may possibly reach 300,000, which is very nearly the figure of last year's drive.

Reno Hoodlums

Last night a number of boys, who no doubt think themselves very bright, cut Nasby's hose and threw it into the street. They then proceeded to upset everything in the vicinity, in doing which they made quite a disturbance. They then went to Commercial Row, tore down Hall's sign and made a general wreck of things in front of Leadbetter's, rolling boxes out into the road, etc. Officer Marshon heard the racket, but before he could get there the hoodlums had left. It is not the first time they have played such pranks, and they are getting stale. If the officers can catch them they will fill the lockup. The 8 o'clock rule, in vogue in other towns, ought to be applied in Reno.

A Decision of Interest.

Yesterday in the matter of Wheeler & Co.'s issue to themselves of 50,000 shares of stock of the N. & O. R. R., Judge Geo. M. Sabin of the U. S. District Court decided that the issue was fraudulent and void. In rendering the decision Judge Sabin said the case was one of the most outrageous that ever came under his notice. There was no shadow of right or decency in it. He characterized the offers of interested parties to sell out for large sums of money as utterly corrupt and such as no honest men would think of.

A Fine Horse.

A. A. Longley is standing his beautiful black 3-year-old stallion, Frank Backus, this year. It is a splendid opportunity for horsemen to improve their stock. He weighed 1,185 pounds at 2 years of age. Backus is now 3 years old, stands 16 1/2 hands high and weighs 1,400. He has fine action and is a good traveler. For farm work or heavy carriage business his stock would be valuable. Backus was sired by the celebrated Norman stallion Barnum. His dam was by Black Sam by Imp Samson.

Broke All But One.

A prominent legal gentleman of Carson, in speaking of the evidence in the Nevada and Oregon Railroad cases, said that it showed that the projectors of it had violated every one of the Ten Commandments but one. Being asked what that was, he said: "The seventh. There is nothing to show that they committed adultery."

THE RAIN.

Its Great Benefit to Farmers and Others in this District.

The rain that has fallen during the past few days has been of incalculable benefit to Washoe valley and, in fact, all the surrounding country. Reports from Winnemucca, Surprise, Paradise and Long valleys indicate a feeling of jubilation among farmers such as they have not experienced for years. No one can remember when feed had such a good start as it has now. The hills are green with young grass in places where none was ever seen before. Frank Dickinson says Winnemucca valley is a beautiful sight. The grass and young grain cover the ground with a mat of verdure richer and healthier than he ever saw before. There will be an immense yield, if nothing intervenes to upset present calculations. In all the other adjacent valleys the prospects are equally as good. Cattle men say the ranges are in condition to supply fine feed for months to come, and that the cattle shipped from here next fall will be equal to stall-fed animals. Henry Ruhe, the butcher, says that in a long experience in the cattle business in this section he never saw native grasses on the mountains so rich and plentiful as now. With so much excellent feed for stock the dairy business must receive quite an impulse this year. The fortunate conditions of the season may help to prove that Nevada's sandy lands have a profitable vitality in them when water is applied.

A Good Country to Look After.

Quite a number of prospectors are about to leave for the front of the Carson and Colorado Railroad, Inyo county, Cal. Late reports from there are very encouraging, and several small plots of very fine gold dust have been received.

Since the distribution of premiums is over and our premium list closed until next year, we are yet anxious to increase the circulation of the WEEKLY BEE to such a number as to greatly reduce the cost of the paper and to furnish it to our subscribers at a mere nominal price. In order to do so we offer the same for the balance of the year, until January 1, 1884, for ONE DOLLAR. This is the lowest price ever asked for a western journal of its size, and all should avail themselves of this liberal offer.
